THE RESPECTABLE PUBLIC is

herby informed that, agreeable to a former Advertisement, a Seminary of Learning was opened at New-Brunswick, last November, by the Name of Queen's College, and also a Grammar School, in order to prepare Youth for the same. — Any Parents or Guardians who may be inclined to send their Children to this Institution, may depend upon having them instructed with the greatest Care and Diligence in all the Arts and Sciences usually taught in public Schools;
the strictest Regard will be paid to their moral Conduct, and (in a Word) to every Thing which may tend to render them a Pleasure to their Friends, and an Ornament to their Species.

Also to obviate the Objection of some to sending their Children on Account of their small Proficiency in English, a proper Person has been provided, who attends at the Grammar School an Hour a Day, and teaches Reading, Writing, and Arithmetic with becoming Accuracy. — It is hoped that the above Considerations, together with the healthy and convenient Situation of the Place, on a Pleasant and navigable River, in the midst of a plentiful Country; the Reasonableness of the Inhabitants in the Price of Board, and the easy Access from all Places, either by Land or Water will be esteemed by the considerate Public, as a sufficient Recommendation of this infant College, which (as it is erected upon so Catholic a Plan) will undoubtedly prove advantageous to our new American World, by affixing its SISTER SEMINARIES to cultivate Piety, Learning, and Liberty.

Per Order of the Trustees,
FREDERICK FRELINGHUYSEN, Tutor.

N. B. The Vacation of the College will be expired on Wednesday the 6th of May, any Students then offering themselves, shall be admitted into such Class, as (upon Ex-

Personally appeared before me David Alston, one of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the County of Middlesex, Reuben Fitz Randolph, being of full Age, and was duly affirmed, that in the Trial depending between William Stone, or his Daughter, and William Smith, Son of James Smith, so called; that the said William Smith came to the said Randolph, asked him if he ever had to do with the said Girl? (meaning, as the said Randolph thought, to have carnal Knowledge of the Body of the said Elizabeth Stone, Daughter to said William Stone) the said Randolph answered said Smith, no; and said he never had any Thing to do with her in that Shape, nor never was an Hour in her Company in private to his Knowledge; with that the said
Smith replies to the said Randolph, whether or no the said Randolph heard any Body say, that they had any Thing to do with the said Elizabeth Stone, in Manner above mentioned? Furthermore in particular, said Smith asked said Randolph, whether or no he ever heard his Brother Isaac, or Stephen Carman say, that both or either of them had to do with the said Elizabeth Stone, Daughter to William Stone, in the Manner aforesaid? And said Randolph replied, no, he never did; then said Smith said to the said Randolph, if you will swear, or fetch any Man that will swear, that they ever had to do with the said Elizabeth Stone, Daughter to William Stone, that the said Smith would give the said
Randolph one of the best Cows in his Yard.

March, 2. Friday the committee on the bill for regulating the future marriages of the Royal family, met in the upper assembly, and the Judges gave their opinion upon the question dated in our Friday's paper, when it is said Baron Smythe delivered it in behalf of himself and the other Judges:
"We are of opinion, that the care and approbation of the marriages of the King's children, and of the presumptive heir to the crown, (other than the issue of Princesses married with foreign families) do belong to the King of this realm; but to what other branches of the Royal family such care and approbation do extend, we do not find precisely determined."

LAMBERT MOORE, Comp.

His Excellency the Governor has published a Proclamation proroguing the General assembly of his Province to the 3d Day of June.

On Saturday last, Mr. Montanny's Negro Man who had misbehaved, and was a remarkable drunkard, was sent to Bridewell, and underwent the usual discipline of the house for such offences, viz. a plentiful dose of warm water and salt to operate as an emetic, and of lamp oyl as a purge, in proportion to the constitution of the patient. Of these he took about 3 quarts of the one, and 24 spoonfulls of the other; (also a jill of New-England rum) which operated very powerfully, attended with a violent sickness which obliged him to lye down.—And between 9 and 9 at night he was discovered to be dead.

He had been drunk 3 times that day before he was brought to Bridewell, and was not sober when the discipline began. Several physicians and surgeons attended, the body of the Negro was open'd and no marks of violence external or internal appeared, the coroner's inquest brought in their verdict that he died of excessive drinking, so operating with the effects of the medicines he had taken. But that Mr. Dobbs, (the operator) was innocent of his death.

On Sunday morning between 2 and 3 o'clock, a terrible fire broke out in Water-Street, near Mr. Degraffe's wharf, in Mr. Benjamin Hildreth's Distillery, in which, (belonging to the tenants, Messrs. Belitho and Springal,) was a large quantity of rum, sugar and molasses, which greatly increased the fury and rapidity of the flames, communicating them to the adjacent houses, mostly built of wood, so suddenly, that many of the people had hardly time to save their furniture &c. and before the Inhabitants could assemble in sufficient numbers to suppress the flames, 9 dwelling-houses, a distillery, 2 store-houses, and a chair-house were reduced to ashes, and several others damaged. Among the houses burnt, were 2 belonging to Mr. Thomas Arden, occupied by Mrs. Finley and John Bionet; 1 belonging to and occupied by Mr. Alexander Montgomery, who has also lost most of his goods, 1 occupied by Mr. William Irwin; a store house, a stable, and a distillery, belonging to Mr. Benjamin Hildreth, whose loss is computed at £. 1500; 1 house belonging to Mr. Willis, occupied by Mr. Freeborn; 1 belonging to Aug. Van Horn, occupied by Mr. Pelatiah Hawes; 1 occupied by Edward Reynolds, who had most of his furniture destroyed; a store house and a stable belonging to Mrs. Walton. Another House belonging to Mr. Hildreth, occupied by Mr. Springall, was several times on fire, and 2 houses belonging to Mr. Kip, occupied by Mr. Peter Haffon and Mr. John Moore, were much burnt, but happily extinguished.

Sunday last the ship Franklin, Capt. James Colvil arrived here in 9 weeks from Liverpool who, on the 19th April lat. 35, 54: long. 54, 57, spoke with the ship Dreadnought, Capt. William Douglass 39 days out from London for Baltimore.

On Sunday evening in 8 weeks from Falmouth, arrived the Harriot Packet, Capt. Oake, who on the 29th of April, lat. 27, spoke the ship Walter, Capt. Richard Hunter, 5 days from Virginia bound to Glasgow.—In the Harriot came passengers, Mr. Richard Colden, Ensign in his Majesty's 42d regiment, and his Lady.

On Monday arrived the brig Lord Hyde, Capt. Shoemaker, from London, after a tedious passage, on which he spoke the following vessels, viz Feb. 29, lat. 46, 47, the ship Kew, from South Carolina for London; 18th April, Lat. 31, 55, lon. 32, 40, a schooner 11 days from Philadelphia, for Dominico; 25th, lat. 37, lon. 69, 30, a sloop 7 days from Cape Fear for Bristol, N. England and a schooner 4 days from N. London for Antigua; 26th, lat. 36, 40, a schooner 16 days from Jamaica for Boston; and 29th, lat. 38, 25, a sloop Captain John Thomas, 26 days from New-Providence for Boston.

Yesterday arrived the sloop Draper, Captain Gibbs in 25 days from the Musquito Shore, who on the 1st Inst. Lat. 34, 30, spoke a ship from London for Virginia.

The same day arrived the brig Princess of Orange, Capt. Gandle in 27 days from the Bay of Honduras, who on the 21st April, lat. 23, 30, spoke with a brig 10 days from Pensacola for Charles-Town—and on the 2d Instant, lat. 34, 44, with a sloop 20 days from Springham for Rhode Island. Capt. Gandle sail'd from the Bay in company with the snow Julia Ann, Captain Nettle of Philadelphia, the Capt. Moore, Waldron, Craig, Stout, Goddard, Exceen, Rose, Perriam and Fairly, all of this port, were at the Bay.

The Duke of Cumberland Packet, Capt. Goodrich, is to sail this day with the mail for Falmouth. The Dutchess of Gordon, Capt. Winn, also is to sail this day for London.

The Lady Gage, Capt. Farmer, and the London, Capt. Chambers, are expected to sail in two or three days.

Yesterday the ship Grace Capt. Chambers from Bristol arrived in 7 weeks and 3 days, on the 28th of March, lat. 49, 34. he spoke with the ship Fair American, Capt. Maxwell, 8 weeks out from Charlestown bound to Cowes, and on the 5th instant lat. 40, 8, spoke a sloop with horses on board 2 days out from New London bound to Jamaica.

A Bristol paper of the 14th of March, by Capt. Chambers, contains the following advices, viz. That on the 21 of Febr. count Struensee, on his examination burst into tears, confessed his guilt, and begged for mercy, owned that the queen had been guilty of infidelity, as well as many high crimes against the state; on which she was order'd into closer confinement, and all access to her denied; of which, when the King was inform'd, he shed tears, and was shut up the rest of the day. That he had desired to see her once more, but was dissuaded. That many persons supposed, witnesses were suborned to swear against her. That the confession of Struensee had been extorted by the terrors of the rack, and that she would certainly fall a sacrifice, unless prevented by the interposition of Great Britain—which had been declined.—That it was reported the Count was beheaded before the window of the castle where the Queen was confined, and that her head was also struck off the 27th of February. That the Royal marriage bill had past both houses; That the Irish patriots, like those of England had quarrel'd among themselves, that a negotiation highly to the prejudice of Great-Britain, was on foot between the Courts of Denmark and Prussia, that the Duke of Greston was gone on an embassy to France.—That the famous Dudley, had confessed himself guilty of purjury in swearing that he was privy to the fire at Portsmouth, and was sentenced to be transported.—That the Duke of Gloucester is not likely to recover.—That the Levant, Parsons had sail'd, and the Ellen, Clark, enter'd out for New-York, and the Hannah, Bird for Quebec.

HUGH GAINE,

Has received in the last Vessels from London, the several Articles under mentioned, which, by Appointment of the Proprietors may be had at his Store at the Bible and Crown in Hanover Square, on the most reasonable Terms viz

The Game of MOTTOES, or English Jokes,

IN imitation of, but far superior to, the French mottoes or Jokes sold at a very high price in London. These JOKES were invented abroad as an agreeable amusement after dinner and supper, by enlivening and entertaining company at a trifling expence. Ladies choose for gentlemen, and gentlemen for ladies; and when broke, contain a motto or joke, which generally is productive of the greatest mirth and humour. In short, every one may find in this game, under the pleasing covering of artificial fruit, a flower, or a bird, some useful precept, and witty and agreeable saying, tending to convey instruction by means of pleasure and delight.

For the Complexion, and Disorders of the Skin:

THE TRUE EAU DE FLEURS DE VENICE, or the VENETIAN BLOOM-WATER. This curious water, extracted from the most fragrant flowers, is much superior to any beauty-wash ever yet discovered, giving to the skin the greatest whiteness and softness imaginable. It takes away pimples, freckles and spots of every kind, with all disagreeable redness, rashes, and sun-burns. It destroys those minute worms, [maggots] which lodge under and deform the skin. It preserves it from wrinkles to an advanced age, and gives to the whole complexion, in a very short time, that healthful and blooming appearance which it ought to have when free from disorders. It is also excellent for the eyes, strengthening and preserving the sight.

THE AROMATICK TOOTH-WATER:

INVENTED by CAPPRON, dentist to his most Christian Majesty, which not only cleanses and whitens the teeth, but preserves the gums, nourishes and makes them grow. It eradicates the most inveterate scurvy, renders those teeth that are loose and ready to fall out, firm and fixed; preserves such as are sound, and prevents their spoiling. This Aromatick water has besides, the virtue of curing all disagreeable smells from the breath, which are owing to the scurvy in the gums and rotten teeth. Cappron's Elixir assuages and cures the most violent tooth-ach in a few minutes. N. B. Cappron's invented brushes for using the Aromatick tooth water may likewise be had.

From Rochelle:

PECTORAL and STOMACHICK LOZENGES by S.

SEIGNETTE, inventor of the famous salt of Rochelle, are an infallible remedy against all rheums coughs, consumptions, hoarsenesses, &c. They prevent the Phlegm, Asthma, &c. They ease the irritations of the acid humours that excite the cough. By their balsamick and nutritive virtues they fortify the tender vessels of the stomach, help digestion, and promote chillsation; they melt in water like sugar, are of a most agreeable taste, and fail not to correct the breath and the impure exhalations of the stomach.

CORN PLASTERS:

INVENTED by the famous Dr. CAMERON. This famous plaster, which was discovered by Dr. Cameron when in France, is offered to the publick from a persuasion that those who shall make use of it will experience its effects to be infallible. It has a very agreeable smell, cures and eradicates all kinds of corns.

EAU DE LUCE in cut smelling bottles, superior to any other. Also cases for the smelling bottles.

LOZENGES from the BALSAM of TOLU.

GREENOUGH'S TINCTURE for preserving and cleaning the TEETH.

GREENOUGH'S TINCTURE for curing the TOOTH-ACH.

STOUGHTON'S DROPS, or Stomachick ELIXIR, best sort.

31-34

To the Respectable PUBLIC.

WHEREAS the members of the reformed German Church, finding it impossible to extricate themselves from the Distresses under which they labour, without the assistance of the respectable public: They therefore humbly present the following scheme of a lottery, in hopes of getting relief from their distress. Should they be so happy as to gain the favour of the well disposed, so as to enable them to go through with their undertaking, they should then have reason to rejoice, that providence has allotted them to live amongst a people, who willingly and cheerfully assist the Distressed.

L O N D O N,

Jan. 25. We have been favoured by a correspondent with the following authentic account of that extraordinary revolt which lately happened amongst the King of Denmark's guards at Copenhagen: On Thursday, December 24th, four companies of the foot guards (the fifth remaining on duty at the King's palace, until relieved by the Danish regiment) were assembled in order to be incorporated into five ordinary marching regiments; but being acquainted with the intention of their being degraded, Mr. Nupsea's company laid down their arms, and declared, they would never submit to serve in any other regiment, upon which this company was committed to the guard-house. The King's company, in order to deliver their comrades, had forced the doors, when they thought of a proper method of redress, by complaining to the King himself, then at Friedrichsberg. The remaining companies went to the King's palace at Copenhagen, joined the company there on service, and fortified themselves in the inner court of the palace, being resolved to fight bravely if they should be attacked. The other company, being sensible that the western gate of the town, as the nearest to Friedrichsberg, would be shut, or well guarded, went to the northern gate, forced the passage, and when they came to the grand avenue that leads to Friedrichsberg, they chose a leader, supposing that the dragoons would be sent after them: the leader, remembering that they had been taught to oppose the attacks of cavalry in a square battalion, formed one, and conducted his little army to the King's house, in the greatest order, with their muskets shouldered. Their intention was to request the King, either for their dismissal, or leave to serve him in their former condition, with only the pay of a common soldier. The captain, seeing his company going to Friedrichsberg, got before them, in order to acquaint the Minister of their intention: the Minister sent him back immediately, when he found they had reached the Aid-de-camp on duty, to tell them, that the King never intended to keep any body in his service by force, and granted them their dismissal. They returned immediately to the town, and wherever they passed, the inhabitants gave them money, and extolled them for their intrepidity and firmness. The two companies who had fortified themselves in the inner court of the King's palace were not so easy to be quieted. Two General Officers went to them, flattered them, and shewed them a paper which they had pretended to be an order for giving them their dismissal; but they refused to leave their place of safety before they had seen that order with the King's name. All the grenadiers of the garrison were then ordered to assemble, with their muskets charged, in order to attack them, if they quitted not the palace before two o'clock in the morning; but softer means were used; the Generals delivered them, at one o'clock in the morning, their dismissal, signed by the King. The inhabitants furnished them while they were besieged, with victuals and wine, and animated them not to yield. The mariners were ready at the first stroke against the guards to assist them, and they threatened to murder the whole garrison. The 25th, in the morning, the carpenters of the King's navy, who are the bravest of all the mariners, asked the guards if they were still injured, begged they might be called for whenever they had the least reason for complaint, and they should find them brave and faithful fellow-citizens.

The AUTHOR OF THE COMPLETE SURVEYOR, TO THE PUBLIC IN GENERAL, AND TO THE SUBSCRIBERS IN PARTICULAR.

MY LORDS AND GENTLEMEN,

PERMIT me to return you my most sincere thanks, for the honour you have done me, in promoting and encouraging my intended publication on Surveying; but, give me leave at the same time to inform you, that, though I was in great hopes of being able to have sent it to the press before this time; yet on enquiring into the number of Subscribers in the country, I find that (notwithstanding I have received upwards of two hundred myself, besides what have been received by others) the number in the whole falls considerably short of my expectations.

As this work will be large, and the expense of printing is considerably greater than would be detracted by the present number of subscribers, I have been obliged to delay the printing of it a little longer than I intended, fearing I might perhaps be a loser by proceeding too hastily.

The present deficiency in the number of subscribers, I look upon, as owing rather to my being unknown than to the want of a spirit of encouragement in the public; but, as my Manuscript Copy has met with the approbation of some of the best judges of the matter in America, viz. the Earl of Stirling, Mr. Golden, Mr. Rittenhouse, and Mr. Lazenby, I hope all objections arising from my name not being yet sufficiently known, may be hereafter laid aside, and that the public will be pleased speedily to encourage a work of so useful a nature, and enable me to lay it before them with expedition.

His Excellency William Franklin, Esq. Governor of New-Jersey, has been pleased to favour me with a Manuscript Essay on the Variation of the Needle, written by the late Mr. Lewis Evans, which will also be inserted in this work (by his Excellency's permission) a matter which the public have long wished for, and which, I hope, will be an additional inducement for many Gentlemen in America, to encourage this publication, particularly those who had the pleasure of being acquainted with that ingenious Gentleman when living.

In the mean time, I beg leave to offer my services in surveying, laying out, or dividing tracts of land; establishing the boundaries of provinces, or any other important lines, either on the common or on astronomical principles.

Those Gentlemen who will be pleased to favour me with their commands in this way, in any part of North-America, may depend on having their work performed with accuracy, and the favour gratefully acknowledged by

Their obliged and most obedient humble servant,

S. G. A. L. E.

He is to be heard of by applying to Alexander

Golden, Esq. Surveyor General of New-York.

RECOMMENDATIONS of the above WORK.

I have perused several parts of Mr. Gale's Manuscript Copy, of the work he proposes to publish by Subscription on the subject of Surveying, and do believe, it will be a very useful work to most of the Surveyors in North-America, as well as others who are desirous of making themselves acquainted with both the theory and practical part of that art.

STIRLING.

New-York, February 26th, 1772.

I have perused such parts of Mr. Gale's Manuscript Copy, as relates to practical Surveying in America (which has been omitted in the former authors) and find it to be well handled, and worthy of the encouragement of the public.

ALEXANDER GOLDEN.

Surveyor-General, of the Colony of New-York. I have perused all the most material parts of Mr. Gale's Manuscript Copy of the Complete Surveyor, and beg leave to recommend it as a work, in my opinion, well deserving the encouragement of the public.

DAVID RITTENHOUSE.

Philadelphia, March 9th, 1772.

I have perused several parts of Samuel Gale's Manuscript Copy of the Complete Surveyor, and am fully convinced, that the rules therein laid down in practical surveying, and especially calculating the areas of such surveys when made, especially that part relating to surveying our rough lands in America, may be of great advantage to those concerned in surveying, as well as others; and therefore think it deserves public encouragement.

JOHN LUKENS,

Surveyor-General of Pennsylvania. Subscribers are taken in by Messrs. Hall and Sellers, and Mr. John Doolap in Market-street, Messrs. Bradfords, at the London Coffee-house, and Mr. E. Bell, at the late Union Library, Philadelphia; Mr. Matthias Slough, Lancaster; Mr. James Pollock, Carlisle; George Wood, Elly Bedford; Mr. Joseph Pennock, East Marlborough, Chester county; Mr. Isaac Collins, Burlington; Mr. Nicholas Rolfe, Mount-Holy; Mr. Hugh Guine, Mr. John Holt, Messrs. Noel and Howard, and Mr. James Rivington, New-York; Mr. Alexander McMichael, Baltimore; Mr. Richard Draper, Boston; Mr. Robert Wall, Charleston, South Carolina; Mr. Alexander Smith, Savannah, in Georgia; and by all the Book-sellers and Printers in America.

N. B. The conditions of the above work is 2s. 6d. Pennsylvania currency on subscribing, and 7s. 6d. on the delivery of the book, or otherwise 10s. 6d. Pennsylvania currency on the delivery of the book, and nothing on subscribing.
